GERMANY.

THE Emperor has not only withdrawn his Troops from the French, but agreed upon a Ceſſation of Arms with Prince Charles; and a Treaty is on Foot to the following Effect

Subſtance of the principal Preliminary Articles of Accommodation between the Emperor and the Queen of Hungary.

I. THE Queen grants to the Emperor the Demains of Swabia, in Conſideration of his Imperial Majeſty's renouncing, for himſelf and for his Deſcendants of the Houſe of Bavaria, all Pretenſions whatever, upon the Auſtrian Succeſſion.

II. The Emperor promiſes not only, not to oppoſe the Inſtances which ſhall be made by the Maritime and other Powers, for crowning the Grand Duke of Toſcany King of the Romans during the Life of the Emperor, but likewiſe to cauſe a general Dyet to be convok'd for this Purpoſe.

III. The Emperor promiſes immediately to require his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty to recall all the French Troops in Germany, to the End, that the Parties at War may be the better able to treat ſolidly and without any Interruption.

IV. THE two contracting Powers promiſe and oblige themſelves to deſire the Maritime, and other Powers in the Circles of the Empire, to accede to the Treaty. And

V. The above Powers ſhall be afreſh invited to the Guaranty of the Pragmatick Sanction, and to act with united Forces againſt any that ſhall attempt to infringe that Convention, or bring any Foreign Troops into the Empire.

VI. After the Accompliſhment of the above Articles, her Majeſty of Hungary obliges herſelf to withdraw her Troops from Bavaria, and to reſtore that Country to the Emperor. or to have the Adminiſtration of it for 5 Years, annually paying 5,000,000 of Florins to his Imperial Majeſty.

But this laſt Article meets with many Difficulties, the Removal of which is now the principal Thing in Agitation.

Hamburgh, July 25. We are aſſured that the King of Pruſſia has taken ſuch Umbrage at an Anſwer which the Court of France lately made to ſome of his Propoſals, that he is reſolved to enter entirely into the View of the Allies, and act in Concert with them againſt France;—to effect which, he has ordered a Body of Troops immediately to join the Auxiliary Army Duſſeldorp, July 23. We hear from Hanau, that Prince Charles of Lorrain arrived there the 20th Inſtant, in order to concert with his Britannick Majeſty about the Operations of the Campaign. The Army of that Prince, which marches in three Columns, having croſſed the Circle of Swabia, is arrived in the Dutchy of Wirtembergh; it carries a fine Train of Artillery along with it. Prince Eſterhaſi, General Nadaſti, and other General Officers of Pr. Charles's Army, are arrived at Heidelberg. Some Auſtrian Huſſars have taken the Magazines which the French had at Zwingenbergh, Liebergh, and other Places in that Neighbourhood.

SWEDEN

Preliminary Articles of Peace between Ruſſia and Sweden, ſign'd at Abo, June 27.

I. SWEDEN ſhall elect the Prince Adolph Frederick, Adminiſtrator of the Dutchy of Holſtein and Biſhop of Lubeck, as Succeſſor to that Crown.

II. Yield for ever to Ruſſia the Province of Kymmene Gard, with all the Branches and Mouths of the River Kymene, excepting the Country on the Weſt Side of its laſt Branch; as alſo the Town and Fortreſs of Nyſtad, with a Frontier on the Weſt and North Sides.

III. That Ruſſia ſhall reſtore for ever to Sweden, the Provinces of Uſtrabothnia, Biornebergh, Abo, the Iſlands of Aland, Tavaſthus and Nylandia, as alſo that Part of Carelia, which by the Treaty of Nyſtadt falls to the Share of Sweden, and the Province of Savolax, except Nyſtad as above.

IV. The great Duke of Ruſſia renounces all Pretenſions to Sweden; and Ruſſia in Conjunction with that Crown ſhall take ſuch proper Meaſures as may prevent any Diſturbances which may ariſe on Account of the aforeſaid Election.

These Preliminaries being approv'd by the States of Sweden, Peace was proclaim'd at Stockholm on the 20th, and after holding a Plenum Plenorum on the 23d, they unanimouſly elected the Biſhop of Lubeck, Succeſſor to the Crown, which was likewiſe proclaim'd with the uſual Solemnity. But the publick Joy was not a little allay'd by the following Affair. 4000 Dalecarlians, who were come up to make Repreſentations againſt this Succeſſion, and in Favour of the Prince of Denmark, notwithſtanding the friendly Remonſtrances made to them by the ſeveral Senators, and even by the King himſelf, forced their Way into Stockholm and ſeized on 6 Pieces of Cannon, which they fired upon the King's Troops, by which Col. Lagerveras and Senator Alderfeldt were wounded, the latter ſince dead of his Wounds. After this, the Garriſon being ordered to fire the Cannon among the Dalecarlians, 20 of them were killed upon the Spot, and about 40 wounded; after which the reſt were ſo diſheartened, that they threw down their Arms and ran away; but as the King's Troops had taken Poſſeſſion of the chief Avenues and Gates of the City, 3000 were taken and ſecured, who, by Appointment of the States, were to be tried by the common Courts of Juſtice. In the mean Time Colonel Lagerwantz is marching to Dalecarlia, with 2000 Foot, 1000 Horſe and a Train of Artillery, entirely to ſuppreſs this Sedition, and oblige the Dalecarlians to a new Oath of Fidelity.

ITALY.

By the laſt Accounts from Meſſina, dated June 30, the Plague continued to rage there in a moſt dreadful Manner, ſo that the Confuſion and Terror of the People were not to be deſcribed; the dead Bodies lay in the Streets mangled by the Dogs for want of People to bury them. The Galley Slaves who were ſet at Liberty for that Purpoſe ſickned and died; no Servants, Surgeons, nor Chaplains were left in the Hoſpitals.

HOLLAND

Hague, July 18. The Generals who are to command the Auxiliary Troops of the Republick, ſet out one after another for their reſpective Poſts. The Foot Guards are to begin their March next Monday, as the Horſe Guards are likewiſe to do the Thurſday following for the Frontiers of Guelderland

Hague, July 30. By a Ship juſt arrived at Rotterdam from Genoa we have Advice, That upon the 12th Inſt. Admiral Mathews arrived in the Road of that City, very near the Port, in his own Ship, accompanied by ſix other Ships carrying 70, 80, and 90 Pieces of Cannon, 3 Bomb-Ketches, and 2 or 3 other Veſſels full of Bombs, &c. and that 5 other large Engliſh Veſſels were ſeen coming in: That the whole City was in ſo great a Conſternation at this Viſit, that no Trade was carried on that Day, and all the Soldiers and Gunners were upon the Batteries. That the Admiral ſent an Expreſs on ſhore, to demand a Gal-lies of the Republick to pilot him into the Port, whenever he should think proper to enter it. That the Town saluted the Flag with 31 Pieces of Cannon from the Ramparts, but the Admiral did not return the Salute That there were in the Port of Genoa, behind the Mole, 17 Spanish Barks or Xabeques, laden with Ammunition for the Spaniards; all which the Admiral had demanded to be delivered to him, and that, in case of Refusal, he had threatened to bombard the Town; but it was thought the Republick would give up the Xabeques Letters adds, that upon the 23d the Genoese saluted the English Squadron with fifty Pieces of Cannon, which the Admiral return'd with 46

London, July 28 Yesterday Morning Lieut Ramsey arrived Express at the Admiralty Office, from Admiral Mathews, at Genoa, with an Account, as we are informed, that the Republick had, pursuant to the Demands of the said Admiral, delivered the 17 Barks or Xabeques, laden with Ammunition for the Spaniards

AMERICA.

Philadelphia, Sept 29 ——— Extract of a Letter from on board the Ship Wilmington of this Place to one of her Owners here dated at Cape Nicholas, August 29*th*, 1743.

SIR,

IN 21 Days from our Cape saw the Virgin Islands, being July 23; the 26th Day off the Island of Mona we took a small Privateer from St Domingo and a small Sloop at Anchor, which I suppose to be an English Turtler taken by the Spaniards; found two Frenchmen and a Spanish Negro; the last told us that he belonged to a Spanish Privateer that took this Sloop, and that 4 English were kill'd in the Action. The 27th in the Morning saw two Sail, which we found afterwards to be a Privateer from St Domingo, and had taken Captain Evans about 34 Hours before Captain Dowell retook Captain Evans that Night, and sent her to Jamaica: I in Chase of the Privateer where Captain Evans and his People was in the Afternoon, close under the Island of Savona, was so nigh that I thought impossible she should escape; but by the Assistance of their Oars they got off I fired 8 Shot at her The re taking Capt Evans and People would have given me as much Pleasure as the taking of this Ship: I chaled her two Days and one Night. The 30th Day came to an Anchor in Sambay, where I found our Ship very much out of Trim for sailing; watered and put all to rights. August 7. Near the Island of Asb I gave Chase to a large Ship, which we found to be a Man of War. As soon as I found my Mistake, made Sail from her; we reefed our Top sails and took in our Top Gallant sails, and left her as we pleased August 18. About 12 Leagues to the Southward of St Jago de Cuba, took this Ship coming Maracaibo, loaden with Cocoa, with some Cash on board, which comes home in Captain Dowell, and the whole Account is inclosed. There were 63 able Men on board, 16 Carriage Guns and 4 Swivels. Her Men I sent on shore here They did not fight, because they say, the Ship was too nigh. The Captain comes home in Captain Dowell, is much of a Gentleman, and I desire the Favour that he may be sent to Lisbon the first Opportunity. The Officers are all in good Health, and have a good Stomach for another Spaniard; they all join with their best Respects to you and all the Gentlemen, I am, &c

J SIBBALD.

Cargo known, is 157 Tons and an Half of Cocoa, one Ton of Chocolate, and 10,000 Pieces of Eight in Cash. The Ship is about 200 Tons, and called La Nostra Seignora de la Salud alias the Prince of Asturias, commanded by Don Philip de Larrea. The above Letter came by Captain Dowell, who, together with the Ship are now coming up our River. 'Tis said they have taken one Spanish Privateer and sunk another.

Yesterday the Snow Hercules, Captain Anderson, who sail'd from this Port sometime since for Madeira, returned hither to refit, having met with a Hurricane in Company with some homeward bound Ships from Jamaica, among which was a Man of War, which she did not see after the Storm The Queen of Hungary, Captain Blacklaws had only his Main Mast left; a Brigt lost her Main Mast; The Fame Galley, Captain Sunderland, foundered: One of her Men was 30 Hours afterwards taken up by Captain Black-burn, out of the Sea, where he had been all the Time, holding only a Hencoop

LONDON, July 2, 1743.

The Court of Petersburgh has demanded of his Britannick Majesty the Ships stipulated by the last defensive Alliance between Great-Britain and Russia.

The Treasury has received Orders to pay the 50,000 l. Subsidy to the King of Sardinia. Four Thousand English Troops will soon be sent into Flanders.

Six Pieces of Brass Cannon, viz. two 24 Pounders, and four 16-Pounders, have lately been cast at Woolwich, on which is the Queen of Hungary's Arms; and we hear they are design'd as a Present for that Princess

July 5 We hear that a Draught will speedily be made of the tallest Men out of the first Regiment of FootGuards, to recruit the Dragoons in Germany.

Last Saturday died at his House in St. James's-Square, after a few Days Illness, the Right Hon Spencer Compton, Earl of Wilmington, First Lord Commissioner of his Majesty's Treasury, one of his Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, Knight of the most Noble Order of the Garter, and one of the Lords of the Regency during his Majesty's Absence in Germany: His Lordship was President of the Council for several Years, and Speaker of the House of Commons in all the Reign of the late King. He was second surviving Son of the Right Hon James Compton, Earl of Northampton, by Mary his Wife, Daughter of the Right Hon. Baptist Noel, Viscount Camden, by Hester Daughter and Coheir of Thomas Lord Wotten. His Lordship dying a Batchelor the Title is extinct, and great Part of his Estate descends to his Nephew, the Earl of Northampton

July 7 The Spaniards have carried off Count Pieroni, the Queen of Hungary's Consul at Ancona, which makes a great Noise, being part of the Ecclesiastical State.

On the French singing Te Deum at Paris.

The French tho' beat, Te Deum sing,
As if they overcome us
Fight them again Great Britain's King,
And make them cry ——— Oramus

July 9 Private Letters from Paris inform us, that several Expresses are dispatched to Brest, Toulon and Marseilles; and also to the Governors of the Frontier Towns, with Orders to put those Places into the best Posture of Defence

We hear that a Regiment of Light Horse, and two of Foot will speedily be embark'd for Flanders

Yesterday a large Number of Fire Arms were shipp'd at the Tower Wharff for the Use of his Majesty's Forces in Germany, with a great Number of Leaden Bullets

July 16 Thursday a Proclamation was issued by the Lords of the Regency, to oblige Persons coming from infected Places to perform Quarantine

Yesterday an Order was sent down to Woolwich, from the Board of Ordnance, for the casting a large Number of Brass and Iron Cannon, of 8, 12, 16, and 24 Pounders, with all possible Expedition.

There is at present a large Gang of Persons in this City, whose chief Business is to enlist Men in the French Service.

The Fleet of Ships, which will in a short Time rendezvous at Spithead, under the Command of Sir John Norris, for the Channel Service, it is said, will consist of two of 100 Guns, four of 80, six of 60, and six of 40; besides Fireships and Bomb Vessels.

A large Quantity of Stores are order'd to be sent with all Expedition to Antigua and Jamaica; and on Wednesday the Commissioners contracted for Ships for that Purpose

July 19 The People at the Tower work Day and Night on the Carriages for 60 Pieces of Brass and 40 of Iron Cannon, that are ordered to be shipp'd in a Month's Time for Flanders.

On Thursday Morning died, after a tedious Indisposition, at his House at the Admiral Office, Philip Cavendish, Esq; Member of Parliament for Portsmouth, Admiral of the Blue, and one of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty. There are now two vacant Flags; the one by the Death of Admiral Wager, and the other by that of the above Gentleman.

CHARLES-TOWN, October 22.

On the 23d Instant arrived here the Ship Swift Galley, Capt. David Bellegarde, from Briſtol. On the 8th, about 170 Leagues to the Eaſtward of our Bar, he met with a violent Gale of Wind, which carried away the ſhip's Main maſt, Main Top Maſt, &c and did her ſome other Damage.

A Ship homeward bound from Jamaica, commanded by Capt. George Bowler, is arrived off our Bar, with 6 or 7 Feet Water in her Hold.
